WORLD'S FAIR FIGHT
RECOUNTED IN DETAIL

Musical and Literary Program
Makes Pleasant Evening
at St. Mary's.

A large reception was given by the students and faculty of St. Mary's College last night in honor of Rev. Father Joseph McQuaide, who returned a few days ago from Washington, where he has been aiding the fight for the San Francisco fair. A musical and literary program was rendered, and short addresses were made by Brother Florinus, president of St. Mary's, and Clifford Russell, president of the student body. The principal feature of the evening was a talk by Father McQuaide on the events of the exposition fight in Washington. A large audience was present in the Alumni gymnasium and listened to every word with interest. Father McQuaide is an alumnus of St. Mary's. The talk given last night was the first since his return from Washington, where he went as the personal representative of Archbishop Riordan of San Francisco.

PAYS TRIBUTE.

Following a few introductory remarks, in which he thanked the students for the big reception that had been tendered him and paid marked tribute to two of his old teachers who were present, Brother Florinus and Brother Agnon, Father McQuaide gave his experience in making the fight in Washington.

"The two biggest influences in securing the Panama-Pacific exposition for San Francisco were Father Taft and William Randolph Hearst," he said.

"It never looked bad for the West-erners, even from the first. Every one was working for one end, friends and enemies working side by side. Party differences were forgotten in the fight for the big fair, for all knew that victory could be won by but one method, sticking together. We stuck together and we won; won by means of a fighting spirit that never for a minute gave rise to even a suspicion of quitting."

HEARST PAPERS HELPED.

"The two big influences in our favor were President Taft, who helped San Francisco from the start, and Mr. Hearst with his papers. By his I don't mean for a second to say that the other papers did not fight from the first as hard as they knew how; they simply did not have the extensive influence in Washington which made the Hearst efforts those that counted."

Father McQuaide related a number of amusing incidents of the campaign, giving in detail an interview with Vice-President Sherman just after he received a letter recommending support for New Orleans from Cardinal Gibbons.

RODENBURG HOPELESS.

He told of being with Rodenburg just prior to his final plea before the House for New Orleans. He said that Rodenburg himself had no hope, even before the vote was taken.

"Even at the last those Southern Democrats tried to stampede the House," said Father McQuaide, "for following the oration of Rodenburg, each and everyone of them, 121 strong, rushed to the front with a yell, and lifted the speaker to their shoulders. A college yell is nothing compared to the 'rebel yell' those Southerners can let out, but even this frayed-up yell had no effect and every vote that we counted on stood by."

"This is the big lesson that I learned at Washington: Stand up for what is right and stick by your principles. Stick by the thing when it is started; that's what wins fights, that's what won the exposition for San Francisco; an honest fight, in which everyone stuck by his word and fought hard."

poor. Your Board has the absolute right, however, to place restrictions upon this matter as you see fit, and the question as to whether or not the public highways shall be set aside for such purpose, is a matter entirely within the province of the Board of Supervisors.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM H. DONAHUE,

District Attorney.

DISCRIMINATION ALLEGED.

The resolution adopted by the board at a previous meeting provides for the closure of the highways in question between the hours of 7 a. m. and 5 p. m. to all traffic except to the holders of tickets admitting them to the grandstands and the auto stalls erected at various points along the course and those owning property and living along the line of the course.

Mr. Foss said that the only reason he had for objecting to the resolution was based upon the discrimination contained in it, which apparently discriminated against those who had no tickets and who did not own property or reside along the line of the course.

The district attorney explained that the board had the right to make any restrictions it desired.

"For one of the promoters of the auto races, explained the large expense that they had incurred preparatory to the races in the building of grandstands and in the renting of property along the line of the course for the purpose. In most cases the owners of the property obtained 50 per cent of the receipts derived from the use. In one case, he said, a property owner has been paid $250 in advance for the use of his ground on which a grandstand has been erected."

NO TROUBLE FOR ANYONE.

He assured the board that there would be no trouble in admitting any one to the

COMMERCE CHAMBER PAYS WARM TRIBUTE

At the regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce this morning, resolutions of sympathy and condolence on the death of William E. Dargie were passed as follows:

WHEREAS, The immutable decrees of fate have removed from the sphere of human activities William E. Dargie, a resident of Oakland, characterized by an indomitable will and an energy unflinchingly exercised in the advancement of this community in which he had a steadfast faith, it is fitting that this Chamber of Commerce express its sorrow and in common with the citizens of Oakland and of the State of California generally, deplore the death of one of the public spirited citizens of this Commonwealth.

The Oakland Chamber of Commerce recognizes that in his public and private capacity the late William E. Dargie was always devoted to the development of Oakland and the advancement of the welfare of the community in which he lived. That in THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE, to which he devoted the best efforts of his life, he has left an enduring monument to his enterprise, his journalistic and business capacity and his confidence in this community, and we desire to convey to his associates and to those who will carry on the work which he has begun, an expression of our sympathy in their loss, and we hope and trust that they may carry forward most successfully the work he began by a continuation of the same policies of loyal support to every effort which will advance the interests of Oakland, of Alameda County and the State of California. To the bereaved members of his household and to those who were close to him in social life and in the business world, we convey our sympathy in their great loss.

RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be placed upon the records of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, of which Mr. Dargie was always an active supporter, and conveyed to the family and business associates of the deceased. Adopted by the Directors of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce this 14th day of February, 1911.

CITY COUNCIL HONORS MEMORY OF W. E. DARGIE

Resolutions lamenting the death of the late William E. Dargie, proprietor of THE TRIBUNE, and extending the sympathy of the city of Oakland to his family, were passed by the City Council last night. The resolutions were introduced by Councilman William J. Baccus, and seconded by Councilman Matthew R. Bronner.

The resolutions were ordered spread upon the minutes of the Council and a copy forwarded to the bereaved family. The resolutions follow:

Whereas, Death has taken from our midst our fellow citizen, the late W. E. Dargie, and

Whereas, In his demise the city of Oakland has lost an energetic and loyal supporter of the city; therefore, be it

Resolved, That this City Council does extend its sincere sympathy to the family of W. E. Dargie, and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this Council and a copy forwarded to his family.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS ADOPTS TESTIMONIAL

The following resolution, offered by Supervisor Bridge, and seconded by Supervisor Mullins, was unanimously adopted by the Board of Supervisors at this morning's session:

WHEREAS, The Board of Supervisors of the County of Alameda believes that none of its citizens have contributed more for its advancement and good than William Edward Dargie during his lifetime; and,

WHEREAS, Both in his private life and his public utterances he consistently and enthusiastically supported every movement of public interest advanced for the good of its people, giving freely and without stint of his time and energy to the achievement of these things; and,

WHEREAS, We believe that in his passing this County has lost one of its foremost citizens; now, therefore be it

RESOLVED, That this Board extend to the widow and family of said William Edward Dargie its sincere sympathy, and that when this Board adjourn this day it do so out of respect to the memory of said deceased.

PRESSMEN OF TRIBUNE VOICE SINCERE SORROW

To the Members of the Pressmen's Chapel of THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE.

The committee selected by you to express by resolution your condolence to the widow and relatives of the late W. E. Dargie, and our sincere regret at his death, respectfully submit:

That the demise of the late W. E. Dargie is most sincerely regretted by all our members; that he was a most generous and consistent friend of our union, and in his death we lose one who has ever worked for our interests, and who ever exhibited an active concern in our material affairs and individual welfare.

In his death we lose a friend in whom we had supreme confidence and which was never abused.

To the widow and relatives we can offer no more fitting tribute than to say: "He was a man; take him all we shall, not look upon his life again." (Signed) course after 7 a. m. If they produced a card authorizing them to enter. Nearly 18,000 badges had already been printed which directed those policing the course to admit the bearer. It was guaranteed that the management would deal fairly and that there would be no trouble on that score.

"We have," he added, "advertised the affair far and wide as a strictly Oakland and Alameda county affair. No mention of San Francisco has been made, in any respect, in its promotion."

Supervisor Mullins said he believed in giving the promoters every reasonable protection. "These auto races will be a bigger advertisement," he added, "to Alameda county than it ever had before from any source, and the county will benefit immensely from it."

Supervisor Bridge said he was satisfied to allow the resolution to stand, and the matter was then dropped.

would be unsurpassed. The railroads run through the site already and water traffic could be discharged right on the grounds.

"The naval base on Alameda Point, which has been talked about for years could become an established fact if the government would join in the matter. The seawall which the state would construct would be one of the permanent improvements which would prove far more valuable in the end than any amount of buildings."

A communication from the committee of the California Cotton mill was read, asking the support of the Chamber of Commerce in the fight for the passage of the 8-hour law. They stated that the shorter hours would mean a cut in wages on account of the competition with the long hours and low wages paid by the southern cotton mills.

Dr. Fardee stated that the matter was even now before the legislature, and in his talks with members of the house he found that they were in a manner pledged to stand by the 8-hour law, and that they had been petitioned by many others to pass it. While it would work hardship in the case of the cotton operators still it was necessary in others. It was a matter of great justice, in his opinion, and required careful adjustment.

H. C. Capwell said that the canners and orchardists had been exempted from the 8-hour law. Pardee said that such exemption could be made in an entire class without doing any harm. The only way out, said he, that he saw, was that we were raising increasing quantities of cotton each year in our own state and in the end that might prove that solution.

"The raising of cotton in our state will not effect a solution," said Capwell, "while we have to contend with the 12 to 14 hours of the southern mills, who raise their own cotton likewise."

EFFECT OF LAW.

A discussion as to the effect of an 8-hour law on other callings was started, but it was agreed that no solution could be offered unless it considered the cotton workers as a class by themselves. It was suggested by J. W. Garthwaite that a committee be sent to Sacramento with the committee from San Francisco, to combat the passing of the bill before the senate.

A resolution to oppose the bill was made by P. C. Fredericksen and with the recommendation that the opposition be confined to the industries of the cotton industries in the 8-hour law, was passed by the board.

"In view of the fact that the magnificent redwood forests of California, which are unparalleled in beauty and splendor in the world, are fast disappearing before the woodman's axe, and believing that it is in pursuance of a wise policy of conservation of our resources, most impressive evidences of the handwork of nature for future generations."

WANT STATE PARK.

"Resolved, That the Oakland Chamber of Commerce favors the establishment of a state park in Humboldt county, in accordance with the plans outlined by the grand parlor of the Native Sons of the Golden West at its meeting at Lake County, the Federated Commercial societies, various women's clubs, the Typographical Union and the Humboldt Chamber of Commerce."

Resolved, That the state legislature at Sacramento be directed to favor same."

Reports of the various committees were read and approved by the board. The directors present this morning were: H. C. Capwell, A. Jones, Dr. C. O. Pardee, J. W. Garthwaite, Walter S. Mackay, C. J. Goldman, Geo. E. Randolph, J. A. Vaniergrift, E. B. Bull.

Whereas, Alameda county is proud of its position as one of the chief counties of California in wealth, resources and population, and

Whereas, This county is today by reason of its intelligent administration without a dollar of bonded indebtedness, and is making an extensive development by the building of good roads, good schools and the maintenance of public buildings that are a credit to the people, challenging the admiration of the entire country, attracting population and increasing wealth and influence, therefore, be it

RUSSIAN FANATICS INFLICT TORTURE

Protest Against Removal of Priest Arouses, Tsarist-syn Natives.

TSARITSYN, Government of Saratov, Russia, Feb. 14.—Fanatical scenes are witnessed here, where the whole Greek Catholic parish is suffering self-imposed deprivations in protest against the transfer to another parish of the Priest Heliodorus, the reactionary leader.

Recently the holy synod announced the transfer of the priest from the Saratov to the diocese of Tulad. The announcement threw the parishioners into a religious frenzy and with Heliodorus they took a solemn vow not to sleep, eat or drink until the order of the holy synod has been rescinded.

Thousands of persons are cooped up in the church, where a service with lighted candles continues without interruption day and night. Many of the worshippers are on the point of suffocation and the suffering of all is distressing to witness.

Heliodorus is a peculiar character. In 1887 he was credited with leading the "black hundred" and the lower stratum of the reactionary forces, in Vortezh province. He is bitterly antisemitic and patriotic to a degree that has been described as insanity.

CABLE BREAKS; BICYCLIST HURT

Charles Rohr Hurlled to Stage While Looping Loop on Wheel.

Hurlled to the floor while looping the loop, when the cable holding a suspended circular track broke, Charles Rohr, a vaudeville bicyclist, was painfully hurt at the Bell Theater last night. Rohr's back was lacerated and his arm and leg cut. That he escaped death is regarded as a miracle.

Rohr, one of the three brothers, was whirling around the track, high above the floor of the stage, when the cable supporting the track gave way without warning. His momentum, checked by the far, Rohr hurtled to the stage landing on his back with his wheel on top of him.

The curtain was hurriedly lowered and the injured man carried to his dressing room. A physician, who summoned, pronounced his wounds not dangerous, and Rohr will go on with his act today.

JUDGE DAY TO FILL PAUL MORTON'S PLACE

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—At the annual election of officers of the Equitable Life Assurance society next Thursday former Judge William A. Day, first vice-president, will be chosen to fill the vacancy made by Paul Morton's death.

Directly after the death of Morton a sentiment favoring the selection of Day developed. That sentiment is sure to crystallize into his election. George T. Wilson, second vice-president, probably will be chosen first vice-president.

Day has been identified with the Equitable since the firm Morton came to it as chairman of the board of directors. When Day was special commission for the interstate commerce commission he was brought into close contact with Morton, and they became strong friends.

NAVY PAINT KEEPS SHIPS FREE FROM CRUSTACEANS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—The bottoms of all naval vessels are painted with paint manufactured by the government and this, it is estimated by the Navy Department, has resulted in a saving of at least $100,000 yearly.

Interest in coral concentration and speed competition in the navy several years ago directed the attention of officers to ship bottom paint, as the condition of the vessel's bottom as regards fouling affects both of these. The Navy Department took up the subject and a mixture was developed which proved satisfactory. It has been used throughout the service and it is declared that the bottoms of naval vessels as a general rule have been freed from barnacles and other fouling matter than was the case formerly.

The home of Mrs. Fox on Madison street was beautifully decorated in spring flowers and greens. Many of today's guests enjoyed the afternoon at the bridge tables, while a large number dropped in for tea.

Some of the handiwork of the season were worn at today's function, which was attended by fashionable folk from San Francisco as well as from this side of the bay.

Both honored guests have been much feted and have been prominent in the social life of this city.

Other affairs today were given by Miss Elizabeth Kentfield for her cousin, Miss Virginia Kentfield of Chicago, when her guests were entertained at the bridge tables, and the card party which Mrs. E. Willis Sharp gave to a score of friends, when she made Mrs. Knicker of Carmel-by-the-Sea, the complimented guest.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

WOMEN CARRIED TO DEATH WHEN RESERVOIR BREAKS

Two Caught Like Rats in Trap as House Is Swept Away in Nevada.

CARSON, Nev., Feb. 14.—A house of broken ice driven by a high wind against the Hobart creek reservoir dam, belonging to the Virginia City waterworks, crushed the dam, the resultant flood carrying away the house in which a woman, Keener Jones and her wife and a woman, visiting Mrs. Jones, a Mrs. Campbell, were taken. Both the women were drowned. Jones was found today in an unconscious condition in a pool of debris down the creek. He was revived, but is in a precarious condition. The bodies of the women have not been found.

Pending repairs on the reservoir, Virginia City will be supplied from the Hobart lake. A crew of 60 men was rushed to the mountains to put in the necessary fluming in time to save the mines from flooding. Until then operations on the Comstock and other big properties at Virginia City will be shut down.

The property loss from the 25,000,000 gallons of water rushing down the valley into the Hobart creek will amount to many thousands of dollars. Repairs will be delayed by the heavy fall of snow in the mountains.

Serves Three Days

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—The prison sentence of three days in the Tombs imposed last Friday upon Mrs. Roberta Morgan Gorwin Hill, divorced wife of Captain Arthur Hill, of the British army, who pleaded guilty to a charge of smuggling, expired yesterday and Mrs. Hill was released. Mrs. Hill, the first woman upon whom a prison sentence has been imposed here on a smuggling charge, pleaded guilty to a charge of bringing a $2000 safe and jewelry valued at $2000 into the country from France without payment of duty. The sentence was imposed after a recent warning that the federal bench that imprisonment would hereafter be a part of the penalty in smuggling cases.

Mrs. Walker Victor

SALT LAKE, Utah, Feb. 14.—Federal Judge John A. Marshall has dismissed the order to Mrs. Althea Walker, widow of David P. Walker, to show why she should not be adjudged in contempt for the alleged removal from Utah to California of securities valued at $150,000, belonging to the Walker estate.

On behalf of the Walker heirs by the first wife, who seek to break the will bequeathing the $200,000 estate to Mrs. Walker, charged Mrs. Walker, who is now in California, with the removal of the securities from Utah to California.

Judge Marshall held that the Walker estate, which is valued at $200,000, was not a part of the Walker estate, and that the Walker heirs were not entitled to the securities.

Taste Is Better

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 14.—Foolishness, just a woman's folly, and a desire to have one more thing in a good time—were responsible for our late, this evening, and now the taste is very bitter.

In chase of a woman, Duley Van Dusen of Boulder Creek, who, with her sister-in-law, Ruth Van Dusen, deserted her husband and two small children and fled to Los Angeles, where she is now living, was seen yesterday.

On advice of Under Sheriff J. O'Connell of Santa Clara, who arrested the woman in this city Sunday night, Mrs. Van Dusen declined to tell who her "affinity" was.

Elinor Glyn Fears Old Age

ELINOR GLYN, author of peppery volumes, and woman of original views.

And That's About All Author of Scorchers Is Afraid of

NEW YORK.—We have with us again the latest masters say—Mrs. Elinor Glyn, author of "Three"—but what's the use of giggling that up? Mrs. Glyn herself doesn't care to talk about the book except to the select few that really understand her soul vibrations. The world misunderstands her, Mrs. Glyn says, because she is going to tell the world in a series of essays what she thinks of it, so self-conscious that it is hypocritical. She is tired of being misunderstood, and she is going to tell the world in a series of essays what she thinks of it. That is her purpose in making her new novel "Three". The book hasn't been written yet, because she hasn't entirely gone over the field of things that need to be set straight. There are a lot of them—religion, literature, social intercourse and frankness between men and women.

"The only thing I dread is old age," she said this evening. "I never want to grow old. It's horrible. I shall try my best to be youthful and when I see the crow's feet coming I'll never look in the mirror again. Maybe I shall go into retirement, found a convent and be the mother superior."

"You seem to be slightly nervous; has anything upset you?" inquired the visitor.

Mrs. Glyn arranged a fan of the tea gown over the tip of a black satin slipper and shivered a trifle.

"I have just had a dreadful experience," she replied. "Imagine one coming to one's apartment, weary from a steamship trip, and a violently dozed with magenta hangings and puff and mustard wallpaper. Can you fancy it? I protested most indignantly to the management and they removed the dreadful objects, or at least the magenta hangings, and gave me an opportunity to rest my soul. I love pink and blue, but the sweetest room I have ever known is the room of whom I am very fond to enter it. It is my sanctuary. And my bath-room! It is wonderful with its silver and marble paneling and walls."

"One can see Mrs. Glyn, that you are easily affected by discordant objects," the reporter interrupted.

HUMAN BEINGS JAR.

"Tremendously so," continued Mrs. Glyn, "and especially so, when I am alone. They jar on me. They cast off so many false ideas. They have such wrong notions of things. They are pitifully conscious, which makes them hypocrites. The criticism of the book which gained me some measure of fame was based on hypocrisy. I never imagined that any one would think I would have written it for the sake of the queen and her young lover was a tragedy. My soul thrilled with it and I tried feebly enough to put down on paper the tremendous feeling of it."

Mrs. Glyn arose to greet a woman visitor.

"You darling!" cried her caller. "You are being interviewed. Don't deny it. I see it. I must go."

"Oh, no; sit down," said Mrs. Glyn. "I was telling the young man how some people deliberately misunderstand my work."

"How could they?" said the caller. "You could anybody misunderstand you?"

"Do you find that Russian society is immoral?" was asked.

"Not at all," said Mrs. Glyn. "Positively by the reverse. The Russians are absolutely natural. They do not attempt to deceive themselves. How can there be immorality in frankness?"

COOKING CLASS GIRLS BALK AT HASH

ATLANTIC CITY.—Members of the special cooking class of the Atlantic City High school who objected to making hash have won a victory.

Girl members of the class had objected to public knowledge of their intention to make hash, because "hash" is one of the four words house parents might hesitate on boarding when they learn that their daughters had mastered the mysteries of hash manufacture.

Beautiful Blackmailer Outwits Detectives

CHICAGO.—The receipt of new threatening letters by a wealthy Chicago woman revealed the fact that Black Hand blackmailers, aided by a young and beautiful woman, have extorted $10,000 from her within the last few months by threatening to kidnap her two small children.

The mother, a member of a family of wealth, received about six months ago a letter telling her to place a certain sum of money in a certain spot on a specified day. If she failed or if she communicated with the police her two small children would be stolen within a week. She put the money in the designated place.

Within six weeks she received another letter demanding a larger sum. She then consulted her family attorney, and on his advice the police were called in. The second letter directed her to go to a downtown hotel at a certain hour in the afternoon and there slip an envelope containing a sum of money—supposed to be $5000—between the back and seat of one of the chairs in the lobby. She followed the directions so far as to place an envelope containing marked bills in a chair and then hurried from the hotel.

Two detectives were on the watch, and within a few minutes they saw a hand-dressed and closely veiled young woman sit down in the chair. A moment later she arose, walked a few feet, sat in another chair for a few minutes and then started to leave the hotel. The detectives followed and arrested her when she reached the sidewalk.

She protested her innocence, but was taken to police headquarters and searched. The marked money was not found on her. Then it occurred to the detectives that she had hidden the money in the second chair she sat on. They hurried back to the hotel, but were too late. The money was gone.

Edna May Returns

LONDON, Feb. 14.—Londoners gave Edna May a tremendous welcome when she returned to the stage last night with an excellent company for the production of "The Belle of New York" at the Savoy Theatre. The performances are given in aid of the Middlesex Hospital. The enthusiasm of the audience was such that it kept the former actress bowing and speechless before them for several minutes. Miss May was plainly disconcerted at first.

OAKLAND'S BOYS AND GIRLS

FOLK DANCING TO BE PART OF CLASS WORK

Will folk dancing be conducive to the best interests of the boys and girls and will it suppress the alleged harmful nickel dancing?

The parents interviewed by the playground directors of Bushrod Park playground have answered the question in the affirmative, according to the latter, and folk dances are now being taught to the boys and girls on Tuesday and Saturday afternoons. It has proved a novelty for the children and is becoming a very popular recreation. Folk dancing exhibitions probably will be given in March.

The girls of Bushrod Park playground will give folk dances at the annual fête to be given by the Mothers' Club of the girls' department of Bushrod Park, on Saturday, February 22.

Washington School, who is in charge of the girls' department of Bushrod Park, is training the children.

About fifty pretty girls will take part.

Dr. Crippen, who left all his property to Ethel Levee, was barred from leaving any of his wife's estate to her because of his crime. The judge in handing down his decision said he could not believe in a woman who would be so cruel to her husband. In this case Miss Levee, he therefore decided that Mrs. Levee was entitled to the estate of her murdered sister.

If so far you have done little toward gaining subscribers you should become active at once, so that we may place enough votes to your credit on the printed list to assure your friends that you are in earnest.

Contestants realize that these are Bonanza days, and every new yearly subscription is a Gold mine of votes.

WHY YOUR FRIENDS SHOULD HELP.

There is no reason why your friends should not assist you with a paid-in-advance subscription.

In the first place it saves them the annoyance of monthly calls from the collector.

In the second place, by paying in advance they do no harm to the agent or to the carrier who gets just the same profit as when he was individually given the money each week or month.

You can readily see that this being the case it is an absolute advantage to the carriers and agents to have every one subscribe in this way, for the more subscribers there are to THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE, the higher their profits run.

BEST OF ALL.

Best of all, the subscriber is able, at no extra cost to himself, to do a really kind and pleasant thing—something that will materially advance the cause of a friend. No one should imagine for a minute that the candidate will get on just as well without him. This is far from true. At the close it is possible for the votes to run so close that even one year's subscription may turn the scale between triumph and disappointment.

In such a case every individual who gave a subscription may well feel that without the aid given by him personally his friend would have lost.

We think you would feel pretty small if the returns showed that the subscription which you withheld had cost your friend a handsome prize.

Now, while the BIG RATE of votes is on, give your subscription so that it may do the most possible good. BIG VOTE OFFER ends February 25th.

KEEP UP THE LIST.

Today you see a fairly long list of candidates, but there are several things to note in this connection.

First, you will observe that there are a good many changes since the list was last published. Next, these changes will continue, and whereas at present the list is kept full by new entries taking the place of those who drop out, in a short time there will be no one to replace those who fall out of rank. This means that the list will shrink materially. There will be much less opposition than is now apparent. There will remain but a few who have done anything worth while.

SEE IT THROUGH.

Having put your shoulder to the wheel, keep right on pushing. It will seem good to you when the opposition grows smaller and smaller from day to day. This is an ideal time for an energetic candidate to jump into the ranks and with a few yearly subscriptions to come to the front and keep there.

WHAT WE LIKE TO SEE.

The spirit the candidates are showing in this contest is just what we like to see. If it be true that "The Lord loveth a cheerful giver," it is true that we love a cheerful candidate. And the public loves them, too. What can be so attractive as a genial smile? We knew a girl in a recent contest who, we firmly believe, was carried to victory on the strength of her smile. She had the same bright, laughing look for all, and it was a rare case for anyone to withstand her appeal. As one man put it, "I didn't want to see the light go out, and so I gave her just what she asked for. After that her smile was brighter than ever."

Several have told us that they were going in "for the fun of the thing." Now there's a fine spirit. Of course they want a prize, and some of them want it very badly, but they mean to have their fun while they are working for it.

Some aids to cheerfulness are the following:

If you are afraid of some individual candidate, it's ten to one that he or she thinks it would all be plain sailing if only YOU were out of the way.

If you hear loud rumors of what some one else has done you will be perfectly safe to divide the rumored number of votes many times.

If you really believe it true, say to yourself, "What they have done I can do." Then go out and do it.

Mind your own business; have no confidants, but have lots of confidence. Don't worry about others, but keep plugging ahead to raise your own vote.

Practice this until March 22d and you will be the happiest person in California on that day.

Fun Is What You Want

CATALDO & CURTIS, a lively pair in Bell Show this week.

If you want to hear some good singing, some good character work and an all-around good vaudeville bill take a trip to the Bell Theater this week. We keep using a lot of newspaper space to tell you about our shows and, remember, newspaper space costs money; but it we didn't have a good show to back up our newspaper talks we would soon be down and out.

Cataldo and Curtis, whose pictures are shown above, are clever people. Cataldo particularly is very entertaining and you laugh your head off at his telephone stunts. He is a particularly good "Dago" character, aside from that he possesses a very sweet singing voice that is heard in a number of nicely appointed songs.

SUNNY MONDAY

Sunny Monday laundry soap contains a wonderful dirt-starter which saves half the rubbing. The soap itself does most of the work—you merely assist it. Your poor back will appreciate the difference at once.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—So striking have been the benefits already realized by the regular army through the adoption of anti-typhoid vaccination, that through General Weaver, in charge of the militia division, the general staff has addressed a circular to the organizers of militia, evidently with the purpose of preparing guardmen for such vaccination in the future.

The circular is based upon a report by Lieutenant George E. Foster of the medical corps, which contains startling figures illustrative of the havoc wrought by typhoid in the army. It is stated that in the American campaign there occurred 20,788 cases of typhoid among 139,978 men with 15,000 deaths. During the Franco-Prussian war the Germans had 73,395 cases, with 87,000 deaths.

Surgeon Foster states that three per cent of the persons recovering from typhoid continue to evacuate typhoid bacilli capable of infecting others. About one-seventh of the regular army has no immunity to typhoid, it is pointed out, that if it were required that all new recruits and re-enlistments be vaccinated the regular army would be immune to typhoid in three years.

With no serious results following over 13,000 inoculations in the army, the procedure is regarded as absolutely safe. Typhoid vaccine is procured at the United States army medical school in this city.
